WORKFORCE SOLUTIONS FOR NORTH CENTRAL TEXAS NAMES THREE ORGANIZATIONS AS PARTNERS OF THE YEAR

Education Service Center Region 11, North Central Texas College and the Wylie Economic Development Corporation Receive the Distinguished Award

ARLINGTON, Texas – Workforce Solutions for North Central Texas (WSNCT) presented Education Service Center Region 11, North Central Texas College and the Wylie Economic Development Corporation with the Partner of the Year award to recognize the invaluable relationships that help make WSNCT’s programs and services possible.

Education Service Center Region 11 was selected as the Community Investment Partner of the Year, North Central Texas College was named Educational Partner of the Year, and Wylie Economic Development Corporation was chosen as the Economic Development Partner of the Year.

The companies received recognition at WSNCT’s annual Awards of Excellence event held on January 29, 2020 at the Hurst Conference Center in Hurst, Texas. The Award of Excellence recognizes the dedication and impact of those who work in, with and on behalf of the organization, including board members, workforce center staff, business partners, educational institutions and community organizations throughout the 14-county area served by WSNCT.

“The deep, collaborative relationships we’ve developed with our educational, economic and community partners magnify the reach and impact of our efforts,” explained David Setzer, Executive Director of WSNCT. “Education Service Center Region 11, North Central Texas College and Wylie Economic Development Corporation continually seek opportunities to innovate and respond to the needs of our region’s employers and career seekers.”

Contributions from the honorees include Education Service Center Region 11’s extensive support of WSNCT’s youth career exploration events and educator externships; North Central Texas College’s outstanding use of grant awards and financial resources to provide programming, scholarships and other support to ensure students’ success in completing a college degree or certificate; and Wylie Economic Development Corporation’s exceptional dedication to creating initiatives and opportunities for communities to not only grow, but thrive.
