

Service Industry Recovery

Free Child Care for Service Industry Workers

The Texas Workforce Commission has approved $500 million to support a new Service Industry Recovery (SIR) program to help low-wage workers in specific service-related industries. Your current employees and future employees may qualify for FREE CHILD CARE FOR ONE YEAR if they currently work in the specified industries, meet the income guidelines and provide proof of Citizenship for their children needing child care services.

Accommodation & Food Service

Examples of Industries: Hotels, Restaurants and Food Delivery

Arts, Entertainment and Recreation

Examples of Industries: Fitness Centers, Movie Theaters and Amusement Parks

Retail

Examples of Industries: Clothing Stores, Gas Stations and Grocery Stores

Applications are available on dfwjobs.com/childcare

All families continue to have access to TWC's regular low-income child care subsidy program. If your employees have questions or would like to speak with someone about eligibility requirements for the SIR program, please have them call (800) 234-9306 or send an email to childcareSIR@dfwjobs.com