WORKFORCE SOLUTIONS FOR NORTH CENTRAL TEXAS RECOGNIZES DR. JASON GOMEZ AS BOARD MEMBER OF THE YEAR

ARLINGTON, Texas – Dr. Jason Gomez, Workforce Solutions for North Central Texas (WSNCT) Workforce Board Member and Deputy Superintendent for Terrell ISD, has been recognized as the WSNCT Board Member of the Year.

Dr. Gomez received this honor at WSNCT's annual Awards of Excellence event held on January 30, 2019 at the Ruthe Jackson Center in Grand Prairie, Texas. The Award of Excellence recognizes the dedication and impact of those who work in, with and on behalf of the organization, including board members, workforce center staff, business partners, educational institutions and community organizations throughout the 14-county area served by WSNCT.

David Setzer, Executive Director of Workforce Solutions for North Central Texas, stated, "Jason is a faithful member of the Board whose thoughtful insight and contributions have greatly benefited our workforce development efforts."

Jason is an advocate for workforce initiatives and helped steer the High Demand Job Training Program that was designed to provide skilled welders to the local industry in the North Central Texas region. This program was in partnership with the Terrell Economic Development Corporation (TEDC), Terrell Independent School District (District), and Trinity Valley Community College (TVCC).
