

Workforce Solutions for North Central Texas is excited to offer reimbursement scholarships for college courses, toward certification or a degree in the area of child development or education for children ages 0-8. The funds are provided by the North Central Texas Workforce Development Board to Texas Rising Star Providers or providers who have applied to become a TRS provider.

These funds are available for a maximum of two courses plus books for the Summer 2021 semester. The eligible courses include business development/management, child development, or education for children ages 0-8 and pertain to the job requirements of the applicant's current position. All courses must be required courses in accordance with the applicant's degree plan for a certification or a degree in the area of child development or education for children ages 0-8. Prerequisites courses are not eligible for reimbursement with this scholarship.

To be eligible for funding, an employee must be employed at a child care facility that is a Texas Rising Star (TRS) Provider or who have applied to become TRS, in our 14 county service area.

All applications must be returned by noon on May 7, 2021 to Workforce Solutions for North Central Texas. All information required on the applications must be completed to be considered. Applicants must include a signed degree plan, transcript, or semester schedule from the college/university to which he/she will be attending with their application. Students already receiving financial aid that covers the full cost of their tuition will not be considered.

- The applicant agrees to attend classes and to complete all assignments, including any lab hours.
- You must provide itemized receipts for courses taken and books purchased and you must show proof of your final grade of "C" or better.

Instructions:

1. Complete and sign the application.
2. Scan and email the completed application to: marmstrong@dfwjobs.com

Your application must be received no later than 12:00pm on May 7, 2021.
Selected participants will be notified no later than May 14, 2021.
